

Prof. Dr. Ismail Naci CANGUL has been a member of Bursa Uludag University, Faculty of Arts and Science, Mathematics Department in Turkey since 1998 where he graduated with a BSc degree in 1987. He has got his first MSc from Uludag University and the second MSc from Warwick University UK in 1990 and his PhD from Southampton University UK in 1994. He has over 400 papers, over 350 scientific talks, 90 books and completed supervision of 17 MSc and 21 PhD theses. His h-index in WoS is 19 and in Scopus 29. He has been working on graph theory and its applications, combinatorics, number theory, discrete groups, algebraic topology and related fields. He worked with over 150 mathematicians from over 30 countries. He has been awarded with many scientific awards for his achievements in graph theory, combinatorics, number theory, algebra and discrete groups.